

Abigail M. Quinn

November 11, 1936 - January 12, 2021

Abigail Miller Quinn, 84, died January 12, 2021, at her home in Greensboro, NC.

Gail was born November 11, 1936 in Houston PA, the daughter of Harry Alexander & Esther Reynolds Miller.

Gail graduated from Chartiers-Houston High School in 1954. She attended Bethany College, where she met and married her husband Karl Quinn Jr. Following college Karl and Gail had and raised four children. After raising her children Gail began a 15-year career doing what she loved, working as an infant caregiver at a local daycare. In all things Gail sought to create an atmosphere of celebration. Her creative touch was seen in her love of gardening and making all things beautiful. She cherished moments with her family and enjoyed a good laugh. Gail was actively involved at Christ U.P. Church and in her community.

Gail is preceded in death by her parents, Harry Alexander and Esther (Reynolds) Miller, 3 brothers, Harry A., C. Rodney and Roger A. Miller.

Gail is survived by her husband Karl, of 63 years, her brother Wilbur E. Miller, her children Chet (Virginia) Quinn, Elizabeth (Rick) Trautman, Ken (Terrisa) Quinn and Margie (Bill) Payne. Grandchildren Kristen (Bill) Pittman, Nathan (Rebecca) Quinn, Michael (Katie) Trautman, Amanda (Hisham) Elshahawi, Rebekah Quinn, Orien Quinn, Abigail and Rachel Payne and 3 great-grandchildren.

A memorial service will take place at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her name may be made to the Parkinson's Foundation (<http://www.parkinson.org>)

Forbis and Dick Guilford Chapel is serving the family and online condolences may be offered at <http://www.forbisanddick.com>
