“ Richard, referring to your comment about Al's working on a dairy farm, I remember that year very well. He worked at Greenbrook Farm owned by Eugene Reed, my father. (However, I did not remember that he was paid with a cow!) Dad was very impressed by Al's hard work, especially from a "city boy". We were sorry for Al to leave, but were very proud of the Marine and man he became. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all of you. Linda Reed Crews

“ I had the honor of meeting Mr. Cobb when he was in the plumbing business. Then several years later, I met Mary and enjoyed time with her. To you the family of Mr. Cobb I send my thoughts and prayers to you. He is in a much better place than we are. One day you will see him again and what a reunion that will be. One of the verses that comes to my mind when someone passes is Revelations 21 v.4

“ I like to think of the good times together when we were young—his pigeon coups, riding the bus downtown, going to the Army Navy store. I’ll never forget the time he brought a cow home to live in our backyard. He wanted to be a dairy farmer so he worked for a dairy farm in his senior year in high school and the farm paid him with a prize dairy cow.

“ I remember Al as one of the hardest workers I knew.
Once he bought an old 50s or so Chevy which had such a bad paint job on it he painted it with a brush!
Looked bad but got him around.
Good man and will be missed. So long fellow Marine.
