“ I will miss seeing Andrew's smiling face every work day. I lost my husband two years before he lost Mary. One day he came into my office and said he had no idea what I was going through until he suffered the same loss. Some days he would just come in and say "how are you doing?" Not in the usual way that people do that. It was heartfelt. I know he is with his Mary and his Savior now and he is whole again. Until we meet again...

“ In grade school are used to play all kinds of games and ride our bikes on the gravel road. Then later on I helped him with Spanish and he helped me keep my car running. And I have many fond memories of wonderful and funny double dates with Drew in the van. I always cherish him and will never forget him. Back in those days we lived life 500 miles an hour and I only hope that he's having fun now that we had back then.

“ Andrew (Drew), as we called him was one of a kind. Drew was a true friend. Our memories go back a very long time. Every time a memory surfaces there is a huge grin or an out loud chuckle. How could you not love him. Our thoughts and prayers for your family are sent with much love.

Forever friends,

“ It is with a heavy heart that I say, Andrew will be missed greatly. He was my favorite Dispatcher. He was a fast-paced little guy with a big heart. He offered me some of every snack he had because he was generous and kind. I will miss him breaking out into a drum beat on his desk when work was busy, always telling me I was right (even when I obviously wasn't) and sighing together on the long days. I will miss his laughter and jokes. He went over and beyond to help me, if you needed anything, he was going to get it done in his Andrew way. When he would leave the office before us, he'd look back, grin, and say, "Y'all coming?" Yes, Andrew... I'm coming, I'll meet you on the better side. Thank you for everything, I'm extremely grateful for the time we had together.

“ I worked with Andrew for 17 years he was the best friend that anyone could have. Andrew was always willing to help you no matter what the need was. He was always there for me in good times and bad. Our joke was the two of us were like an old married couple because we knew what the other was thinking before we said it. I will always miss you my friend.

“ My husband and I both worked with Andrew. Andrew was Kevin's dispatcher for 13 years before Kevin left Turner. I am still at Turner. Andrew was a staple here at Turner. My day was complete when I passed by him in the warehouse or parking lot. He'd often share something sweet with me from the snack machine, or bring me part of his tenderloin biscuit on Friday's. He always had a kind word, a compliment and a smile. Kevin and Andrew loved to cut up, share a joke with each other. Andrew was always thoughtful and asked how Kevin was doing every time I'd see him. Andrew is the only one who kept up with Kevin after he left and that meant the world to Kevin. They were both diagnosed with lung cancer at about the same time. They understood what each other was going thru. We are so deeply saddened that Andrew lost the fight. The Walker family is taking this loss very hard, we love you Andrew (AKA Clink). There will never be another Clink and we can't wait to see you again one day, completely healed. You will be missed dearly. Sending prayers for all his loved ones, friends and co-workers.

With Love,

Crystal and Kevin Walker

“ I did not know him long but i can honestly say i have never met a more kind and full of energy person to be around he was so full of life all the time! He was so welcoming when we started working together and also so encouraging he left an impact on the people he was around and those memories will be greatly cherished.
