“ My dearest Aunt Ann,
I will forever treasure our many phone calls over the years discussing everything from the events of the day, family news, how much you missed Uncle Pete, but especially the love, support and guidance you provided through the ups and downs of life! Your positive outlook, sassy and spunky personality was loved and enjoyed. Thank you for being you, my very special Aunt Ann who will be forever loved and missed. May you rest in eternal peace alongside your loved ones. Your loving niece

“ It had been my pleasure to know Ann Moran for more than 20 years. She called me the daughter that she never had and I am honored to know her. Ann was a feisty little thing with a great sense of humor. She has truly missed Pete these past years and I am so happy that they will be back together. I look forward to seeing you again, Ann, in a place of great peace.

Love,
Susie
