“ Charlie was my baby, although he was sick he had so much soul. In fact I looked forward to seeing him at work every night that I worked. I remember one day staying up with him until 4 am waiting on the toilet top to deliver it's babies. All night just me Charlie and the top, he even had a blanket all spread out. It was moments like that, that really touched my heart. I know we are not supposed to have favorites at this job but he was mine. This really hit me hard but I know he is at peace in Heaven fixing stuff. Lol my Baby Charlie you will be missed...Rest easy my love
