“ Dianne, we cannot find the words to express our shock and the loss. Connie and Dan would sit for hours and talk about Vietnam, gardening, tractors and anything else that popped into one of their heads. We loved Connie and thought of him as a family. He will surely be missed by both of us.

“ Uncle Connie was kind, loving, and generous. The loving ways he cared for his sister Nadine, Eddie, and our children will live on in our hearts. Connie and Aunt Dianne have supported us and celebrated with us in many ways. I remember how they cared for and stood beside us when Eddie's mother passed on. Connie, and Dianne, have treated our children as their own. I remember when my son Jonathan and his wife were first married and how Connie showed up one cold winter day with a much needed space heater. And all the times he would slip money to Daniel. In the summer he was often showing up with strawberries from Rudd's or all kinds of fresh vegetables. Often he would check in with me asking after "our working person" to which I would counter how's "retired person". We'll miss seeing him out on his tractor or planting peas (we've picked and shelled a many alone together). Until we meet again with our Savior and loved ones, he will be dearly missed and we have been so privileged to be family together. In loving memory, Linda Norris
