WALNUT COVE

Cora Velma Bassett Burley, 96, went home to be with her Lord Thursday afternoon, April 23, 2020 at her home surrounded by her loving family.

Cora was born on December 16, 1923 in Canister, NY to the late Ray and Sally Osmin Bassett. She was a member of the Community of Christ Church in Kernersville where she was the organist and pianist. Cora was a good cook and could make the best chocolate chip cookies. She loved to garden and work outside, as well as walking every morning. Also, she liked to collect bells and had hundreds of them in her collection. Cora loved her children very much and was always there for them whenever they needed her. She was retired from Eastman Kodak and also worked as a Homemaker.

In addition to her parents, Cora was preceded in death by her husband, Rodney Burley; brother, Carol Bassett and sister-in-law, Essie Bassett.

Cora is survived by her loving children, Darlene Hartwig (Mike) of Walnut Cove, Jerry Burley of Bearsville, NY and Betty Graham (Bruce) of Louisville, KY; 9 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren and 2 great-great grandchildren, and several special nieces and nephews.

There will be a memorial service held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Trellis Supportive Care, 101 Hospice Lane Winston Salem, NC 27103.

Online condolences may be made at www.burroughsfuneralhome.com

“ Dar, Jerry, and Betty:
I am so sorry for your loss. I remember years ago when you lived in Greenwood and all the fun times we had at your Mom's house. I loved her so much and she was such a blessing to my Mom. You are in my prayers always

“ Dear Burley Family ,

I hope you know how much The Brown's loved your Mom. She was one of my all time favorite people. She DID make the best meatloaf ever !!! Wow , such a flood of memories.

We will be praying for you guys as you process this in these challenging times. I wish I could be there to give everyone a great big hug ! God bless !

Love , Bruce and Suzy Brown
