“ Dear Bea and family, I wanted to express my condolences to you in your loss of Duane. You and your family were very fortunate to have had such a fine partner and father in Duane. It is always a sad time when God takes one our family and one of his children back to himself. I hope, in time, you will find the comfort of the Holy Spirit in you with this loss.

Bea, You and I have been friends through our real estate business at Kriegsman and Associates fir a number of years. I moved from Greensboro in 1989 to Waynesboro, Va. to assist my dad, who no is not living, with his real estate. I married my long time sweetheart and we have a twenty-four year daughter and a twenty-one year old son. Please know my deepest feelings are with you and your family now and hope time will ease your loss. In greatest sympathy, Jim Cook jfcook@cookreal.com
