

Edward Stewart Harris

March 4, 1953 - January 3, 2019

GREENSBORO – Edward Stewart Harris, Sr., age 65, of Greensboro, North Carolina, formerly of Winston-Salem, started his new journey on Thursday, January 3, 2019.

Edward is survived by his devoted son, Eddie Harris, and his wife Cassie Harris of Greensboro; his wife, Cherie Martin of Greensboro and special friend, Betty Montgomery also of Greensboro.

He is predeceased by his parents, Dr. Julian and Frances Harris and his brother, Ken Harris.

Edward graduated from Forsyth Technical Institute in Winston-Salem and from Pratt Institute in New York City earning a B.S. in Architecture in 1978. After graduation, he pursued his 40-year career in Los Angeles, California, Chapel Hill, North Carolina and Burlington, North Carolina.

Upon retiring, he worked for Greensboro Auto Auctions.

Ed was an avid golfer, animal lover and an organ donor, donating his corneas to Miracles in Sight.

The family asks that any memorials for Edward be given through your “Daily Acts of Kindness” shown to those dear to you and your family.

Forbis and Dick Guilford Chapel is serving the Harris family and online condolences may be offered at www.forbisanddick.com

“ Prayers for the family and friends. We attended the same church in Winston-Salem and as children, we were neighbors. May God's love give you comfort.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Ed and I became good friends when he lived with Rebecca. He was always so kind to me and my dogs. I will miss his smile.

“ Ed is my cousin. I am one of the many from Davie Co. Howard side. Was shocked to see this today. So sorry for your loss. I would love for a family member to contact me and let me know what happened. He spent a couple Thanksgivings with my family and hunted behind our home as a teen. Prayers are with you. (Julia Pilcher 336 972-2755) If there is a memorial I would love to attend.
