“ Susan so very sorry about your Mom . I can still see myself standing in front of your Mom as she pinned and adjusted my dresses. So many fond memories of your family. I can still hear that sweet laughter. She and Mom were so funny together they had so much fun with Lawrence and Daddy. Please know you are in my prayers and please accept my apology that I was unable to attend her homegoing service. Much love to you and your family ,

“ Elaine was my aunt and a great one all her life to me. She will be missed but know she has met up with Lawrence, Lauren, Cova Belle and her sisters and brothers. She was the last of many aunts. Her sense of humor made all of us laugh and it was a pleasure to visit her. I will miss you but thankful you lived to 99. We were all pulling for you to hit 100, but God called you home. I loved you.
