“ We have so many pleasant memories of family gatherings: Kemp and Sandra's wedding, when Chelsea was born, birthday parties, holidays, Mama & Daddy's anniversary party, beach trips, Kemp and Marc and Wilson replacing the front door at my parents' house.

Kemp endured so much that he did not deserve, it wasn't fair. He was a kind person and sensible. I wish we could have been there to celebrate his life, but COVID-19 got in the way. At least he didn't have to suffer that. We will continue to remember Kemp. Dear Carie, may the Lord send his Holy Spirit to comfort you, and all who mourn.

“ I knew Kemp from Southeast High days and more recently from Brighton Gardens where my mother-in-law was also a resident. While his body suffered limitations, his smile and sense of humor were very intact. RIP, Kemp.

“ I remember the first time that I met Kemp, at the old HDI location on Park Terrace, new product and new company (ACME)...you always knew when you hit a selling point with Kemp, as he gave you a great smile! RIP Kemp!
