“ Bill met me with open arms as I reported to my first teaching job at Smith High School. I soon found out that his hobby was my profession. I taught Industrial Arts (shop) as he called it so we enjoyed many of the same things. Bill always dressed with a crisp shirt and tie which sometimes looked strange beside my shop apron or shop coat. I have the fondest of memories. Only sorry that I lost track of where he resided. I would have visited or called to catch up. Sincerely , Joe S. Miller, teacher and retired Vocational Education Director, Guilford County Schools, 540-599-4513.
