

Jerry A. Lee

April 21, 1952 - June 26, 2019

Jerry A. Lee, 67, passed away at his home on Wednesday, June 26, 2019.

A memorial service to celebrate his life and love will be held at 3 p.m. on Sunday July 7, 2019 at New Hope Baptist Church in Walnut Cove with Pastor Travis Howard officiating. The family will receive friends following the service.

A Guilford County native, Jerry was born, the only child of Benjamin and Frances Manuel Lee, on April 21, 1952. There's no telling how many miles he covered as a truck driver nor the friends he made along the way. He was an avid golfer and Tar Heel fan, loved playing cards, shooting pool, and playing the guitar. But family was his first love.

Surviving are his wife, Sharon Linder of the home; daughters Renee Sorrell (Rodney, Sr.) of Stokesdale, Tauri Cayton (Kris) of Madison, and Brianna Lee of Oak Ridge; 7 grandchildren Chelsea Sorrell Robertson, Rodney Sorrell, II, Hannah Sorrell, Chloe Cayton, Abby Cayton, C. J. Clapp, and Kingstin Clapp; and 2 great grandsons Kanaan and Carter.

Memorials may be made to Duke University, PO Box 90581, Durham, NC 27708-0581, note: Duke Cancer Center in memo.

Forbis & Dick Stokesdale is serving the Lee family.

Sharon

We only knew Jerry for a short time but he always had a smile for everyone. We always enjoyed seeing you both at Bon Bon's. Our thoughts are with you and your family at this time.

We were friends 'back in the day' of hanging out in Stokesdale. He was a good guy who always had a big smile.

Brianna Lee, Jerry's daughter, was one of my best friends growing up. I have known her since elementary school. When I would go to Brianna's house, Jerry was always there to greet me and give me a hug. He made me feel like family. I remember how amazed I was when I first heard him sing and play the acoustic guitar! He was good! I also remember all the laughs we would share outside on the back porch or in the kitchen while we sat around the dining room table. He was a good man, father, and I'm sure grandfather. I have not met his grandbabies yet, but I know he loved them. Rest easy Jerry, you will be missed
