“ My condolences to the entire family of Larry Brown at the loss of your dear loved one. I was shocked and saddened to hear of his passing, and I know heaven has now gained another angel in Larry. I grew to know Larry at Wells Fargo, from greetings we shared when passing each other in the halls, and conversations when we would run across each other at the WEC canteen grabbing breakfast or lunch. He was always so friendly - such a down to earth sweet soul, from the first conversation I ever had with him! He will surely be missed by all of us employees at WEC! May his soul rest in heavenly peace, and may it comfort you to know that his fellow employees miss him and grieve with you also.
Respectfully submitted - Marcella Jordan

“ I was so heart broken to hear about Larry. About (20) years ago we worked together in the vault. We shared many laughs and stories about our family. He was so proud when those babies was born. But one thing always stuck in my mind. He would be singing a song and make up his own words in the song and we would just laugh. You will be missed. Rhonda (Wells Fargo)

“ Larry, Nick and I cannot believe you are gone. You were the funniest, kindest, and most humble person I have ever worked with. A joyful soul, bright aura. I am so happy and grateful I got to know you when I moved to North Carolina. You were always so welcoming and willing to go the extra mile for anyone no matter what! I will miss your contagious laugh, the stories about your wonderful family and your doggies. Work won't be the same without you, Larry and you will be missed forever. “ I was shocked when I heard about the passing of Larry. He was one of the kindest people I've ever met and it didn't matter what kind of day you were having Larry would remind you of why it was a great day. I've never known anyone that walked with so much joy in his heart. He said many times that his wife and girls were his whole life. I could have sat for hours and listen to him talk about how much he loved his family. I'll tell you this, the work place will never be the same without that joyful soul in the building. My condolences to the family during this time. Prayers are going up for you.

Sincerely,
