“ Wally and Family,
Remembering some great and fun times with your folks in our Pineburr days. Even though we lost touch with them after they moved, Bill and I still think about some of the times we shared together. What a pair!
I know you are devastated by the loss of your mother--it's one of life's hardest things we have to deal with, but remember the good times and the good memories. She will always be with you in spirit. Loving and encouraging you as always. She is probably already getting your dad hooked to his leash!
Our deepest sympathy.
Jane and Bill Martin

“ I met Wayne and Lil in the late 1960's when we moved to Greensboro and joined GPPC. They were both "cards"! Usually if one person in a couple is outgoing and funny, the other is quieter and stands back. Not the West family! Lil could joke around as well as Wayne, and they raised two remarkable kids. I kept up with them until the last few years, after my in-laws passed away, and Wally, I was always glad when you posted pictures of a special celebration with them. Lil remained cute and perky as long as I saw her. I will never forget them.
