“ Marty was a dear friend of my mother for many years. In addition to being church friends, they volunteered together and sustained each other in difficult times. We are saddened by her loss. Cilie Sutton

“ I met Marty at a Presbyterian Women's Retreat. She introduced herself and told me that she visited my mom and how much she always enjoyed her visits. My mom was house bound. It meant a lot to her to have visitors. I became friends with Marty and visited with her out at Well Springs. She would always invite me to have lunch or dinner. I always enjoyed my conversations with her. I will miss her.
