Burial will follow at Guilford Memorial Park. Masks and social distancing for Covid 19 protocol are required.

Mildred was born June 4, 1926 in Mooresville, NC. When she was a young girl, her family moved to Greensboro when her father was called to serve as Pastor of Pomona Baptist Church. She attended Rankin High School. In the late forties, Mildred began her career with Burlington Industries Corporate offices where she worked until her retirement.

She was a faithful member of Palm Street Christian Church, serving as a deaconess, choir member, Sunday School teacher, Women's Missionary Circle, and wherever she was needed. Mildred also served the DAV Women's Auxiliary as a member and Commander. One of her favorite activities was meeting with BI Friends, a group of retired Burlington Industries co-workers with whom she shared wonderful friendship. She was quite the bowler in her younger years, and she marked many miles walking with the Carolina Circle Mall Walkers Club. Mildred remembered friends, family, and those who needed special care by baking and personally delivering hundreds of her delicious cakes. She was preceded in death by her husband, Wilbur G. Worsham, her daughter, Gloria Diane Worsham, her parents, the Rev. Walter B. Cook and Mary Conley Cook, and brothers, Charles C. Cook and Walter B. Cook, Jr. She is survived by her sister, Gracie Cook West, brother-in-law, the Rev. W. Joseph West, of Greensboro, and her niece, Julia (Julie) Elizabeth West of Wilmington, DE. Memorial gifts may be made to Palm Street Christian Church, 1921 Palm Street, Greensboro, NC 27405, or a charity of a donor's choice. The family wishes to thank the staff of Camden Place Health and Rehabilitation for their kind, attentive, loving care. Online condolences may be made at <http://www.forbisanddick.com>.

“ We will all miss that sweet smile of Mildreds.' She was always there when we were in need of comfort and it's a shame that now when her family needs that same comfort we can't even share a hug. So virtual hugs to all. I do know there were a lot of hugs in Heaven when Mildred arrived back home to her family there.

To her family here please know you are in our prayers. Thank you for sharing Mildred with us and being there for her.

“ Mildred was one of our faithful BI Friends. In fact, the last time she met us for breakfast at Oakcrest was a day of heavy rain. Prior to that at Tex & Shirley's, we knew she would be a little late but always join us. So many good memories of her calls and the many conversations we shared. We will miss her but know she will welcome all her friends HOME.
