

Paula Ann Masten White

July 21, 1964 - January 24, 2021

MOCKSVILLE - Mrs. Paula Ann Masten White, 56, of Franklin Lane, died Sunday, January 24, 2021, at her home, surrounded by family while being held tightly in the arms of her loving husband of 25 years.

They had a unique and special relationship as they spent most all their hours together.

Whether in their home or at work, they were seldom seen apart from one another.

They enjoyed fishing and taking trips to the beach together, and found a love for church six years ago, having given their hearts to God.

Paula's hands were rarely still as she could be found wrapping meat at Jerry's Meat Processing, where she worked for 22 years, until the onset of her illness.

She loved to cook, work in her yard, grow all kinds of flowers, and crochet. Paula had a passion for animals, especially those needing to be rescued, and possessed a gentle way of healing them. She will be missed by her beloved cat, Peanut, who laid by her head until the end. Paula truly loved being a grandmother and cherished every minute she got to spend with her grandchildren. They were one of her greatest joys. Paula always sought to find the good in everything and everyone. She believed that no matter the path chosen, people always had the power to change and become better. She herself could find joy in the simple things in life. Even through Paula's journey with cancer, she remained a loving and caring person, and the world will be a little duller without her bright smile and loving heart.

She was born on July 21, 1964, in Forsyth County, to the late John Paul and Cindy Jarrard Masten.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a sister, Tammy Alspaugh; a grandson, Kaden Powell; and her father in law, Jerry White.

Survivors include her husband, Tim White of the home; three children, Katrina Powell, Kenneth Powell and Cody White (Kay Davis) all of Mocksville; four grandchildren, Khrissa Powell and Bella, Bentley and Kyla Powell and their mother, Angell Peacock; her mother-in-law, Virginia White of Mocksville; two brothers, Shane Masten (Jerri) of Mocksville and Chad Masten of Greensboro; sister-in-law, Teresa Stovall (Johnny) of Mocksville; a nephew, Gary Bumgarner (Bethany); special grandnephews, Brantley and Henry Bumgarner; her aunt, Barbara Craven (Mike) of Kernersville; and special friend, Tina Fox.

A funeral service will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 28, at Community Covenant Church with Pastor Keith Ledford and Pastor Rowan Fay officiating. FM Radio will be available on 93.9. Interment will follow in Zion Chapel Methodist Church Cemetery. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service.

Memorials may be considered for Community Covenant Church, 1446 Sheffield Road, Mocksville, NC 27028.

Comments

“ Paula was a wonderful woman and friend. She was always smiling, laughing or saying "Tim would you hush" to make sure he was staying in line. I am going to miss seeing her outside on her break at the Meat House and yelling "What are you and them babies doing?" I will miss our long talks about flowers, our yards, and how pretty they will be when our bulbs bloomed. I will cherish the memories we shared and hope that we will meet again. Rest Easy pretty lady!
