“ Rachel was not only one of the sweetest women I have ever met, she was one of the hardest working. She kept a spotless house, immaculate yard, always fixed a home-cooked meal, was the bookkeeper for the business, took care of Callie while teaching her so much...all with that sweet smile on her face! She never complained or said a harsh word. The day Callie was born she and I were both crying and she said "did you ever think we would be blessed with something so precious"!!! I am forever grateful that God lent us this angel. Misty and I both are so thankful she was Tony's mama. I will always love her for who she was...Alice McBride, "the other nana".

“ Walter, Tony, Misty I'm so very sorry. I never had a chance to meet her but felt like I knew her by the way Walter would beam when he'd share stories about her. My heart hurts for you all but take comfort in knowing how many care and are praying for you.

“ Being at a loss of adequate words for the special woman that Rachel was, I'll just say I loved her. I couldn't believe when I learned of her illness, but am thankful that she was lifted up by God's hands and taken home. Our earthly selves want her back, but now we must try and carry on and be the light that she was and lean on the Lord knowing, she is healed, whole and waiting on her family and friend to join her. Love to all, many hugs for you Walter and little Callie.
