“ I just found out about this and my heart is heavy. Silvio was instrumental in giving me my leadership foot print. He challenged me to always be my best and not become complacent. My days with him were paramount to many successes on my journey and he will always be remembered for the personal brand he left with you. God lay your arms on the family as they get through the tough days ahead.

“ Silvio was a wonderful person and friend to both my husband and me. He did not suffer fools lightly; was as honest as the day is long; and took pride in his work and the way he lived his life. We adored him. He built a successful construction business through hard work and word of mouth from his satisfied customers, most of whom became friends.
He will be sorely missed by The Bowers.

“ OMG I was so sad to hear about my beloved Silvio! Most definitely one of my most treasured friends. We shared so much in high school. I still have a pair of Lee Rider jeans that belonged to Silvio! Faded denim was in style and Silvio would wear them out for me and then give them back. We'd go to Rudnick's in Schenectady together and buy them and surprisingly we both wore the same size! He was such a charming man and I will miss him and regret that I never got down to visit you guys! LuAnn and family please know you are in my thoughts and prayers and Silvio touched my life in many many ways. He was a treasure! God Bless you all.

“ The imprint one leaves in the lives of others says a lot about a person's character. Whenever I worked on a project with Silvio, I knew I was working for someone giving his best.... and a person who appreciated and expected others to do the same.

Silvio left a positive imprint in the lives of many of us in the construction industry. He was indeed a man of good character, with a big smile and kind words. Please know...he will be missed. My deepest condolences to your family. May you find great joy in your many good memories of him.

“ Mr. Mossa, as he liked me to call him, was certified Old School. You do the job right, or you don't do it at all. I haven't met many that held that belief so strongly. I enjoyed working with Silvio, and really enjoyed him working for me! He will be truly missed. My best to his family, whom I know he so loved.

“ To the Mossa family: very saddened to hear of Silvio's passing. He was a JOY to work with on a project at my home. A fine businessman who clearly valued doing a job right, with quality and humor mixed in. He always made me feel like my renovation was a priority and he would not rest until it was done to both his and my satisfaction.

May your very best memories comfort you during the weeks and months ahead.

With deepest sympathy,
Cynthia Livengood

“ To the Mossa family:
We're so sorry for your loss and will miss Silvio very much! Whether it was a big or small project, Silvio treated every home renovation issue at our house with great care and surrounded himself with a crew that always did the same. We admired his professionalism, his attention to detail, his humor, and his kindness to our family. He was such a fine man and we'll miss his friendship. Dan and Knox Barker
